

*You'll never fade into a memory,
...you will always be with me...*

My grandparents;

They're so kind, and caring.
They both inspire me so much,
To learn how to love and share.

My grandmother taught me how to swim,
and my grandfather taught me respect.
I'm not quite sure how long they'll be around, but I want them to know that I love them both with my entire heart.

My grandma is my bestfriend, without a doubt she is, my grandfather is also.
Without them I would be lacking in almost every aspect of life.

My grandparents have been together for over 50 years,
and has never taken off their wedding rings.
I've never had parents that kept together,
but I do have parents who care,
just like them.

As I say all of this,
I will miss them so much,
and be broken when they leave this world..

But I will never forget,
the true heros of my life.

I wish everyone appreciated their grandparents, like I do.
The world would be so much of a better place..

I love you grammy and grandpy.

I'm going to miss you so much when you leave..

But I know I will be following in your footsteps.

My mother never had parents who were there for her,
and treated her like their own as much as you both did.

Our family will never be the same without you, try to stick around as much as you both can....

Well Grammy..
I know you're not doing too well right now,..
But I wanted to let you know that I will always love you and remember you.
It hurts so much seeing you in all this pain.
If I could I would take your cancer from you,
and keep it for myself.

We all love you so much..

- Your first granddaughter, -
